

Television should go back to the American Standards of family. Cut out the violence, profanity, homosexuality, etc. Even some of the cartoons have questionable moral messages. More access to Christian programming choices. Good old fashioned TV that families can watch together.